

AROUND THE NATION

• The Justice Department has dismissed a complaint against Roberta Jeanne Barnes, an associate of former CIA agent Edwin P. Wilson. The complaint accused Barnes of failing to declare all the money she carried when she arrived at Dallas-Fort Worth Airport on a flight from London just before Christmas.

From news services and staff reports